In August, the Hove & Associates team came together at Hayes Court, Port of Spain, for a workshop centred on strategic planning and development. It was a valuable opportunity for our team to step back from the day-to-day, reflect on where we are, discuss where we want to go and explore how we can continue to grow and develop together. The day was filled with meaningful conversations, fresh ideas and a shared commitment to building an even stronger future for our firm and our team.

Spider-Man Cinema Lime: Team outing at IMAX (August)

In August, the Hove & Associates team enjoyed a well-deserved brain cooler at IMAX, catching the latest Spider-Man movie together.

We wanted to give our staff an opportunity to step away from the demands of work, relax, laugh and simply enjoy each other's company. These moments of togetherness are important, and we were happy to create a little space for our team to unwind and recharge.
